

DRAFT

MGA BYLAWS

Men's Golf Association

Sky Meadow Country Club

Adopted: _____ Revised: _____

ARTICLE I — NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. This organization shall be known as the Sky Meadow Country Club Men's Golf Association, hereinafter referred to as the 'Association' or 'MGA.'

Section 2. Purpose. The purpose of the Association shall be to:

- Promote the game of golf and fellowship among male members of Sky Meadow Country Club.
- Organize and conduct golf tournaments, events, and competitions throughout the season.
- Maintain equitable handicaps in accordance with the World Handicap System (WHS).
- Establish and uphold the Rules of Golf as promulgated by the USGA and R&A.
- Foster sportsmanship, integrity, and camaraderie among all members.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility. Membership in the Association shall be open to all male members in good standing of Sky Meadow Country Club who hold a Full Golf membership, Junior Executive membership, or equivalent golf-playing membership category as defined by the Club.

Section 2. Application. Membership in the Association is automatic upon joining Sky Meadow Country Club in an eligible membership category, subject to payment of annual MGA dues. Members may formally register by completing the MGA registration form and submitting dues to the Board of Directors prior to the first event of the season.

Section 3. Dues. Annual dues shall be established by the Board of Directors prior to the commencement of each golf season. Dues shall be used to defray the costs of events, prizes, administration, and other Association activities. Members whose dues are not current shall not be permitted to participate in MGA events until dues are paid.

Section 4. Honorary Membership. The Board of Directors may, by majority vote, confer Honorary Membership upon individuals who have rendered distinguished service to the Association or to the game of golf. Honorary members shall not be required to pay dues and shall not hold voting rights.

Section 5. Good Standing. A member in good standing is defined as one whose annual dues are current, who is a member in good standing of Sky Meadow Country Club, and who has not been subject to disciplinary action resulting in suspension or expulsion.

Section 6. Resignation. Any member may resign from the Association by providing written notice to the Board of Directors. Resignation does not entitle a member to a refund of dues already paid.

ARTICLE III — BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Composition. The Association shall be governed by a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) Directors, all of whom shall have equal standing and voting rights on the Board.

Section 2. Chairperson. At its first meeting following the Annual Meeting, the Board shall select one of its members to serve as Chairperson. The Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Association and the Board and shall serve as the primary point of contact for the Association. The role of Chairperson may be reassigned by majority vote of the Board at any time.

Section 3. Allocation of Responsibilities. The Board shall, by majority vote, allocate among its members the functional responsibilities necessary to operate the Association, including but not limited to:

- Financial management (collection of dues, custody of funds, financial reporting)
- Records and communications (meeting minutes, membership roster, member notices)
- Events and competitions (tournament scheduling, conditions of competition, prizes)
- Handicap administration (WHS oversight, score posting, handicap disputes)
- Member relations and outreach

The Board shall document the allocation of responsibilities in writing and may reassign duties at any time by majority vote. More than one area of responsibility may be assigned to a single Director, and a single area of responsibility may be shared among multiple Directors.

Section 4. Eligibility. Any member in good standing of the Association who has been a member for at least one (1) full season shall be eligible to serve as a Director.

Section 5. Election. Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of members present at the Annual Meeting. Elections shall be held annually. Directors shall take office at the conclusion of the Annual Meeting and shall serve for a term of one (1) year or until their successors are duly elected and installed.

Section 6. Term Limits. No Director shall serve more than three (3) consecutive terms. After a hiatus of at least one (1) year, a former Director is again eligible for election.

Section 7. Vacancies. In the event a vacancy occurs on the Board, the remaining Directors shall, by majority vote, appoint a member in good standing to fill the unexpired term until the next Annual Meeting election. The Board shall continue to function so long as at least three (3) Directors remain in office.

Section 8. Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board for cause by a vote of four (4) of the five (5) Directors, or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at a duly noticed membership meeting, provided that the Director in question has been given reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard.

Section 9. Committees. The Board may establish standing or ad hoc committees and appoint members of the Association to serve on such committees as it deems necessary. Committee members who are not Directors shall serve in a non-voting advisory capacity to the Board.

ARTICLE IV — DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Authority. The Board of Directors shall have general supervision over the affairs of the Association and shall be responsible for carrying out its purposes as stated in Article I. All decisions of the Board shall be made by majority vote of the Directors present, provided a quorum of the Board exists.

Section 2. Board Quorum. Three (3) Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of Board business.

Section 3. Functional Responsibilities. Regardless of how responsibilities are allocated among individual Directors, the Board as a whole shall ensure that the following functions are faithfully performed:

(a) Financial Management. The Board shall ensure that all Association funds are held in custody, that accurate financial records are maintained, that dues and event fees are collected, that all authorized expenditures are paid, and that a financial report is presented at each Board meeting and at the Annual Meeting.

(b) Records and Communications. The Board shall ensure that accurate minutes are kept of all meetings of the Association and the Board, that all official records and correspondence are maintained, that required notices are provided to members, and that the official membership roster is current.

(c) Events and Competitions. The Board shall ensure that all Association tournaments and events are planned, coordinated, and administered in conjunction with the Club's Director of Golf and/or his or her appointed delegates. This includes publishing the annual schedule, establishing conditions of competition, arranging for prizes and awards, and submitting a post-season report.

(d) Handicap Administration. The Board shall ensure that the World Handicap System is properly administered for all Association members, that scores are properly posted and maintained, that handicap questions or disputes are resolved in accordance with WHS guidelines, and that appropriate liaison is maintained with the Club's golf professional staff on handicap matters.

(e) Member Relations. The Board shall ensure that member communications are timely and effective, that new members are welcomed and oriented, and that member concerns are heard and addressed.

Section 4. Coordination with Club. The Board shall coordinate with the Club's Director of Golf and/or his or her appointed delegates on all matters relating to the use of Club facilities, scheduling of events, and conditions of competition.

Section 5. Accountability. Each Director shall be accountable to the Board for the responsibilities assigned to him. The Board shall review the allocation of responsibilities at least once per season and may reassign duties as circumstances require.

ARTICLE V — MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Association shall hold an Annual Meeting, typically in the fall following the close of the golf season, for the purpose of electing Directors, reviewing the year's activities, presenting financial reports, and transacting any other business properly brought before the membership.

Section 2. Opening Night Meeting. The Association shall hold an Opening Night Meeting prior to the commencement of each golf season. The purpose of this meeting shall be to welcome members, introduce the year's Directors and their allocated responsibilities, present the season schedule and conditions of competition, review Association rules and policies, collect dues, and transact any other business appropriate to the start of the season. The date and format of the Opening Night Meeting shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Board Meetings. The Board of Directors shall convene at least once per month during the active golf season. The purpose of these meetings shall be to review ongoing Association business, address operational matters, assess the progress of events, review finances, and prepare for upcoming activities. Board meetings may be conducted in person or by other means of communication as determined by the Chairperson.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the membership may be called by the Chairperson, by majority vote of the Board, or by petition of at least twenty percent (20%) of the members in good standing. Notice of special meetings, including the stated purpose, shall be provided at least ten (10) days in advance.

Section 5. Notice. Notice of all membership meetings shall be communicated to members at least fourteen (14) days in advance, via email, the Club's communication channels, or such other means as the Board may determine.

Section 6. Quorum. Twenty percent (20%) of the members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any membership meeting.

Section 7. Voting. Each member in good standing present shall be entitled to one (1) vote on matters brought before the membership. Proxy voting is not permitted. Decisions shall be by majority vote of members present, unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI — EVENTS & COMPETITIONS

Section 1. Tournament Schedule. The Board of Directors, working in conjunction with the Club's Director of Golf and/or his or her appointed delegates, shall publish an annual schedule of events prior to the start of each golf season. The schedule shall include, at minimum, a season-opening event, a mid-season major, and a season-ending championship. The schedule shall be presented and distributed at the Opening Night Meeting.

Section 2. Conditions of Competition. The Board of Directors, in conjunction with the Club's Director of Golf and/or his or her appointed delegates, shall establish and publish the conditions of competition for each event, including the format of play, handicap allowance, and eligibility requirements. All competitions shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Golf as established by the USGA and R&A.

Section 3. Handicaps. MGA events shall use USGA World Handicap System Handicap Indexes as maintained by the Association. The Board shall determine handicap allowances appropriate to each format of play.

Section 4. Calcutta and Wagering Events. The Association may conduct Calcutta auctions or other wagering-related competitions in compliance with applicable Club rules, state law, and the Internal Revenue Code. All such events shall be approved in advance by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Awards and Prizes. The Board shall arrange appropriate awards and prizes for Association events within the approved budget. All prizes shall conform to applicable USGA amateur status rules. The Association shall maintain a record of all champions, hereinafter the 'Champions Board.'

Section 6. Pace of Play. All members are expected to maintain an appropriate pace of play during MGA events. The Board is authorized to establish and enforce pace of play guidelines, including potential disqualification for excessive delays.

ARTICLE VII — FINANCES

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall commence on January 1 and end on December 31 of each year, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Budget. The Board shall prepare an annual budget for approval prior to the start of each season. No expenditures shall be made in excess of approved budget line items without Board approval.

Section 3. Financial Review. The books and financial records of the Association shall be reviewed annually by a committee of at least two (2) members who are not Directors, appointed by the Board. A summary of the review shall be presented at the Annual Meeting.

Section 4. Signing Authority. All checks, drafts, or other orders for payment of money drawn on Association accounts in excess of [AMOUNT] shall require the signature of two (2) Directors, as designated by the Board.

Section 5. Dissolution. In the event of dissolution of the Association, all assets remaining after payment of outstanding obligations shall be donated to a charitable organization selected by the Board of Directors, or as otherwise required by applicable law.

ARTICLE VIII — CONDUCT & DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Code of Conduct. All members are expected to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the Rules of Golf, the rules and policies of Sky Meadow Country Club, and the highest standards of sportsmanship and personal integrity. Conduct unbecoming a member of the Association shall be grounds for disciplinary action.

Section 2. Disciplinary Procedure. Complaints regarding member conduct shall be submitted in writing to any Director. The Board of Directors shall investigate the complaint and provide the accused member with written notice and an opportunity to respond. Possible sanctions include: written warning, suspension from Association activities for a specified period, or expulsion from the Association. Expulsion requires a vote of at least four (4) of the five (5) Directors.

Section 3. Appeals. A member subject to suspension or expulsion may appeal the Board's decision to a special vote of the membership, provided written notice of appeal is submitted to the Board within fifteen (15) days of notification of the Board's decision. The decision of the membership shall be final.

ARTICLE IX — RELATIONSHIP WITH SKY MEADOW COUNTRY CLUB

Section 1. Club Affiliation. The Association is an affiliated organization of Sky Meadow Country Club. The Association shall operate in compliance with all Club rules, policies, and the terms of any affiliation agreement between the Association and the Club.

Section 2. Club Facilities. The Association's use of Club facilities, including the golf course, practice areas, and meeting spaces, is subject to the rules and scheduling authority of the Club. The Association shall coordinate with Club management on scheduling of events and use of facilities.

Section 3. Non-Liability. The Association is an independent voluntary organization. The Club is not responsible for the financial obligations or liabilities of the Association, and the Association is not responsible for the financial obligations or liabilities of the Club.

ARTICLE X — AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Proposal. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by any member in good standing or by the Board of Directors. Proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing to the Board.

Section 2. Notice and Adoption. Proposed amendments shall be distributed to all members at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting at which the amendment will be considered. Adoption of an amendment requires approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the members present at any duly noticed membership meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 3. Emergency Amendments. In matters of emergency, the Board of Directors may adopt temporary rule changes by unanimous vote of the Directors, effective immediately. Such changes must be ratified by the membership at the next regular membership meeting or they shall lapse.

ARTICLE XI — PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws or any special rules of order adopted by the Association.

ARTICLE XII — EFFECTIVE DATE

These Bylaws shall take effect upon adoption by the membership at a duly noticed meeting at which a quorum is present. All previous bylaws, rules, and regulations of the Association inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

CERTIFICATION

We, the undersigned Directors of the Sky Meadow Country Club Men's Golf Association, certify that the foregoing Bylaws were duly adopted at a meeting of the membership held on _____.
